

National Outdoor Recreation Workforce Development Consortium Member Participation Agreement

I, _____, as a staff member at _____, agree to join the Outdoor Recreation Workforce Development Consortium (“the Consortium”) as a member.

I understand that my name and affiliated academic institution may be listed on a Consortium website and Consortium related written materials.

I understand I will receive regular communication from the Consortium and will have the opportunity to actively participate in Consortium work, including (but not limited to) research projects, member outreach, and Consortium governance activities.

I understand that the Consortium steering committee will govern the Consortium.

I understand that Oregon State University’s Center for the Outdoor Recreation Economy is the fiscal sponsor and coordinator of the Consortium, and any financial decisions regarding expenditure of Consortium funds will be made in coordination with the steering committee and in alignment with funding source budgets, requirements, and expectations.

I understand that no financial obligations are assumed as a part of membership in the Consortium at this time, but that future financial obligations are possible depending on the direction of the Consortium determined by the Consortium steering committee.
